

Tadworth Youth Football Club

(hereinafter referred to as 'The Club')

Code of Conduct

Sport is an important part of life. All those involved with sport at every level, whether as a player, match official, coach, owner or administrator, have a responsibility, above and beyond compliance with the law, to act according to the highest standards of integrity, and to ensure that the reputation of sport is, and remains, high.

Community

Sport, at all levels, is a vital part of a community. The Club will take into account community feeling when making decisions.

Equality

The Club is opposed to discrimination of any form and will promote measures to prevent it, in whatever form, from being expressed.

Participants

The Club recognises the sense of ownership felt by those who participate at all levels of sport. This includes those who play, those who coach or help in any way, and those who officiate, as well as administrators and supporters. The Club is committed to appropriate consultation with those who so participate.

Young People

The Club acknowledges the extent that sport can influence young people and pledges to set a positive example.

Propriety

The Club acknowledges that public confidence demands the highest standards of financial and administrative behaviour and as such will not tolerate corruption or improper practices.

Trust and Respect

The Club will uphold a relationship of trust and respect between all involved in sport, whether they are individuals or other clubs and organisations.

Violence

The Club rejects the use of violence of any nature by anyone.

Fairness

The Club is committed to fairness in its dealings with all those involved in the provision of sporting activities.

Integrity and Fair Play

The Club is committed to the principle of playing to win consistent with Fair Play.
