

NEWARK v SCUNTHORPE – Midlands One East

A warm welcome to all our visitors from Dunstablians today. Matches between the two teams have proved to be very competitive and another repeat is expected today. Thank you to Tony Rose of Newark Storage for his continued sponsorship of the club which has helped to keep Kelham Road shipshape for many years. Tony is sponsoring today's match.

Team news

The team has undergone another reshuffle. Matt Keville picked up an injury for Loughborough on Wednesday and is replaced by a new name in Matt Cox from Melton who played for the 2nds last week. Matt Brewer is back at full-back and there is place for Buddha on the wing. Alex Moore is unavailable due to work commitments. The pack remains the same that has done well in recent weeks against Syston and Derby.

Bonfire Night

An annual favourite is upon us again. Please support the evening. £15 a car or £5 a head. Volunteers are needed. Please contact Stan or Dickie. Gates open at 6.30pm. Bonfire lit at 7.30pm and fireworks from 7.45pm.

Twickenham Tickets

Two tickets for England-Argentina on Saturday, Nov 14 are going unwanted at the moment. They were won in the raffle at the annual golf day. Unfortunately, the organisers of the day did not make a note of the winner. Please contact Dickie or Barry if you think you won the tickets.

Arthur Organ

It is a sad duty to report the death of Arthur, a club vice president, who was 80 last year. His funeral was held last Monday in Southwell. A well known referee in the area during his rugby days and was still a keen follower of the club's activities.

News, Events, Seen & Heard

Best of the net

Jock Mackinnon on the 2nd XV's narrow defeat to Derby

'Rob Dunning demonstrated his strength in both the tight against a heavyweight prop and in the loose, with some very strong runs with ball in hand. Matt Cox, despite suffering a broken nose, played with flare and confidence and will be a valuable asset to the Newark cause.'

Tom Pykett on a 3rd team 'love affair' at Derby

'This Pennant game will go down well for both sides, as not the winning, but, the taking part, as it could have gone either way. There was something about the Lady Referee, the fact she let both sides play open rugby, that both teams enjoyed an epic encounter. (Notts Lincs & Derby official, Nottingham Trent University Player).'

Jon Ward gets carried away about the 4th team's win over Derby

'With possession aplenty it wasn't long before we were able to string some impressive back play together and Captain Armond delivered the most sublime of passes and put Ted Bunn into a gap the size of the English Channel to score under the posts.

'With forwards and backs combining brilliantly and Armond marshalling his troops expertly it wasn't long before we were camped on the Derby try line and looking for another try. Sure enough sustained possession allowed the forwards to drive the Derby pack backwards and Richard Primett took his chance and picked up and went over for his second of the game.'

Darren Gourley on the under-15s at Spalding

'The Newark players showed great maturity in their approach to the game and a big thank you goes to Tom Coslett and Tom Kent who actually played a half each for Spalding as they only had 14 players. The game itself was also played with good discipline with Newark scoring eight tries to Spalding's three.'

Spencer Bell on the under-12s at Nottingham

'Two great games. Nottingham just proving again they are a top class team and Newark are on their heels with a very strong squad. Well done to all, a windy day and the improvements in our squad were obvious to all. Player of the day was Harrison Coulson – straight running, good tackling and two tries. Nice one Harrison.'

John Wilcox on the under-10s at Nottingham

The Vikings try came after a period of intense play on the Nottingham line with involvement by forwards, centre players and wingers, which resulted in Jack Hodges taking the ball over to score our only try. Mention must also be made of Josh Seabrook, who effort as full back kept the oppositions scores under control.

BIG H UPDATE

BAD news from Exeter about our powerhouse prop who had a successful spell in 2002 when the club won promotion from Midlands Three East. He has developed so quickly, via Wellington, New Zealand Maori and Calvisano, that he was able to gain a contract at the Championship club last summer. He started the season well but has now broken his arm. He was hoping to play against Nottingham next weekend which had sparked plenty of interest in a group making the trip to Meadow Lane. Big H is still aiming to travel north but the match will be held at Leicester's Welford Road ground next Saturday, kick off 4.15pm. Meadow Lane is out of action because of FA Cup commitments.

Between the Posts

by John Whitelaw

I am a little confused. Traditionally, Newark Storage, our main club sponsors, via the good offices of life member Tony Rose, have sponsored our first home league game of the season. This campaign everything has changed and Tony is sponsoring today's game. His support is always greatly appreciated and the lunches excellent. One of those usually invited is my wife and 'a friend' if she feels so inclined. She doesn't have to take me but if she wants to get to the club in time to eat she would need a new driver while I spent an hour or so in the Bramley in Southwell.

As a result of Tony's new date I say we should draw a veil over what September and October were all about. We've had enough time to sort ourselves out this term so surely it's the most appropriate day to kick start our season?

Last Saturday we slaughtered Derby but they had three attacks in the first half and scored two tries, and very nearly a third, whilst after the break they had a good 10 minutes right at the end which produced a converted try and a penalty. By that time we should have had the game dead and buried but records will show a 'W' for the home side. End of story.

The league table puts us eight match points behind Derby but does little to tell the whole story. We have played five out the top six (the other is Ilkeston) and five of our eight games have been away from Kelham Road. Derby, on the other hand, have played only one of the top sides (Ilkeston) and five of their games have been at home. It's time to catch up. Our chances of promotion this season are already looking a bit slim but whilst we keep beating the sides below us we shouldn't have too many problems and victory over the likes of Dunstablians should set us up right for the dark nights ahead.

For the 3rds it was a good news day last Saturday. Not only did we win but both sides stayed on the pitch! Were all the players mindful of the lady referee? By the time last Saturday's game was over I was feeling a bit miserable but the Advertiser had a reminder of just how small my problems are.

It was just a couple of lines on the letters page thanking two police officers for their help after a burglary and it was signed 'C. Fehrs'. Yes, the Welshman had been burgled. As if he hadn't enough to worry about he couldn't even resort to what I am sure would have been a much needed drink as the sods concerned (not the police) had nicked his whisky! Let's hope that when Santa comes he will be on his way South from the Highlands and Islands of Scotland with suitable gifts.

Today's visit from Dunstablians put me in mind of the great help and hospitality they showed to us a few years back. It was close to Bonfire Night when we made a visit with our special guest John Lawrence. We hired a coach capable of taking John's chair and the welcome they gave us all was second to none. It was an unforgettable day and Chris Hope was put off chocolate oranges for life - Andy Statham will probably explain if plied with drink! Dunstablians won the league game but the result was of minor importance as it was friendship through rugby that won the day. Enjoy the game, John Whitelaw
