Job Description for the Senior Coach of Spalding Rugby Club

The role of club coach is a pivotal position to the performance and development of the club.

Spalding RFC requires a club coach to improve all levels of skill, and performance of all senior teams and to promote good rugby within the club. Spalding RFC has a group of talented young players who require a good coach to develop their skills and self belief.

Key responsibilities

- To give focus and structure to all senior teams.
- Identify player and team strengths/weakness and address correct /adapt.
- Take 2 x structured training sessions on Tuesday and Thursday of each week (Hours 7.30 – 8.45)
- Ensure player / team fitness incorporated into training sessions
- Make training ‘FUN’ but still deliver the required results, this will encourage increased numbers.
- Develop a summer training plan to ensure the teams are physically and mentally ready for the start of the season.
- Liaise with team captains and the senior rugby coordinator on all team /game /selection issues and to be part of selection committee.
- To deliver positive game results.
- Formulate, identify and structure a game plan.
- Individual player development.
- Encourage and generate club spirit by positive attitude, and integrate within the club.
- Instil Player discipline.
- To have a informal monthly meeting (if necessary) with the chairman / rugby administrator / captains to air ideas and views.

We regard ourselves as a small ‘Town’ club with a friendly attitude. We strive for positive results by hard work, focus, determination and club spirit. We have good club spirit, which we need to increase to encourage confidence. We are in the process of developing a new venue on the edge of Spalding to which our juniors are expected to move to in September 2016 and the seniors when everything has been prepared.

This role will be fully supported by the committee, senior rugby coordinator and the players

The successful candidate will be reimbursed for travelling expenses.

In the first instance please contact Geof Nichols, the Chairman for further information and to discuss what you think you can bring to the club. Contact can be made at geofnic@gmail.com or by mobile on 07888311212.