

READING RUGBY FOOTBALL CLUB

The Aviva Premiership Rugby Final takes place on Saturday 28th May 2011 at Twickenham Stadium, where the 2010/11 Aviva Premiership Rugby Champions will be crowned.

The match is world rugby union's biggest domestic club final, selling out Twickenham Stadium for the last three seasons. Last season's match was a thrilling encounter, with Leicester Tigers snatching victory over a strong Saracens side

This year Reading Rugby Club has organised a special package representing great value to take a limited number of club members and their guests to see this fantastic event. The ticket price includes:-

- Bacon roll and coffee/tea at RRFC before travelling.
- Return coach transport from RRFC to Twickenham, (equipped with a toilet!).
- Entry to the game, (RRFC will all be grouped together).
- Hospitality provided by RRFC including food, wine and beer in the North Car Park before and after the game. Pop and fruit based drinks will be available for children.¹ (reasonable consumption policy)

The cost of this exciting day is:-

Adults - £60

Child - £35 (5-15yrs inclusive)²

The closing date for applications for tickets is 25th May 2011.

Bacon rolls, tea and coffee will be served from approximately 9.45am

The coach will depart from the club at approximately 10.30am and return at approximately 7.30pm

¹ Reasonable consumption policy will apply to beverages and food. No alcohol will be provided to under 18s

² We regret that we are unable to accept children under 5yrs
