

The directions below are from Google maps. Getting close to the venue is easy. The last bit can be confusing. The directions take you round this roundabout and back the way you came.

After a few moments, you will see a left turn into Weetwood Hall Hotel. Go to the far end of their car park and you'll see the venue. Park in the car park and look for the gap in the wall that gives you access to the playing fields.

Option 2 is to park in the playing fields car park. To do this, go right at the roundabout and down the hill (A6120). This is a dual carriageway and you can't turn right into the car park.

Instead, go down to the first set of traffic lights, get in the right hand lane to filter right. Do a U turn and back up the hill and look for the car park entry on your left
