

York RUFC Women's XV Coach Required for Season 2018/19

York RUFC requires a coach to help the development of our women's squad for the 2018/19 season as they embark on their first league campaign.

With an active squad of 25 members and a great record in their first season of friendlies, we are looking for a performance driven coach to take advantage of this record to develop a competitive squad for the league.

Roles & Responsibilities

- To work with the existing structure of the squad to develop the team and players within.
- Commit the time to training sessions and matches, currently Wednesday evening for training and Sunday afternoon for matches.
- Produce, in association with the Captain, training plans and player improvement plans for training.
- Ability to deliver sessions which are challenging, specific and most of all fun.
- Assist the Captain and Vice-Captain in selection of the playing squad for matches.
- In association with the Captain and Manager, invite other coaches to assist when required.
- Develop own experience in coaching and developing Women's rugby.

Qualification and Skills

- UKCC Rugby Union Level 2 or willing to learn towards it.
- An understanding and experience of Adult Women's Rugby (ideal but not essential)
- Enthusiasm and patience with players of vastly different experience.
- Experience of coaching a competitive, performance team (adult or junior)
- A good level of rugby knowledge, in both forwards and back play, to be able to help the players reach their potential.
