The 2012-13 campaign will be remembered for nail-biting finishes in two of Evo-Stik NPL's three divisions and a relentless march to the championship in the other.

The Premier Division saw the tightest of contests with the title's destination only decided on the final day, North Ferriby United winning the championship on goal difference from second placed Hednesford Town after a neck and neck race to the finishing line. The Villagers enter Step 2 for the first time in their history after a treble winning season saw them retain the Doodson Sport Challenge Cup and lift the East Riding Senior Cup. In the NPL's Challenge Cup, their 2-1 win on penalties over Curzon Ashton after the sides drew 1-1 in extra-time saw them make history as only the third club in the competition's history to triumph in successive seasons.

The campaign ended in joy too for the Pitmen who bounced back to win promotion the hard way with a 2-1 Play-off Final win over FC United of Manchester. Apart from inflicting play-off heartbreak on FCUM for the third successive season, the win completed their treble after victories in both the Birmingham and Staffordshire Senior Cup Finals. At the other end of the Premier Division table, Eastwood Town and Kendal Town were relegated.

First Division South champions King's Lynn Town confirmed their second successive promotion after holding their nerve to win the Evo-Stik NPL's other nail-biter, finally overhauling long-time leaders Coalville Town with a game to spare in the final week of the season. The Ravens saw a double digit lead chipped away by the chasing pack and suffered further agonies as fourth placed Stamford AFC took the second promotion slot via the play-offs. Hucknall Town left the league following their relegation.

Like the Linnets, First Division North Skelmersdale were forced to play catch-up in the second half of the campaign after their success in reaching the Third Round of the FA Trophy. Both champions were only 90 minutes away from flying the flag for the Evo-Stik NPL in the last eight, Skem losing 2-0 at Luton Town and the Linnets going out 2-0 at home to Southport.

Skelmersdale's assault on the title after exiting the national cup competition in January hardly wavered. In the end, they notched up 102 points, 16 ahead of their nearest rivals Cammell Laird to wrap up the championship with more than two weeks still to go. Skelmersdale also went on to win the Peter Swales Challenge Shield after travelling to The Walks to meet the Linnets who uncharacteristically took the day off, losing 6-1 at home to their fellow champions.

Runners-up Lairds also lost out to the fourth placed side in their divisional play-offs, Trafford winning promotion to the league's top flight after an extra-time and penalties win when the clubs met in the final. At the other end of the division's league table, Garforth Town were relegated out of the league.

In the FA Cup, AFC Fylde were the league's sole representatives in the competition's First Round. They lost 4-1 at home to Accrington Stanley after a 1-0 replay win over Premier Division rivals Ilkeston in the Fourth Qualifying Round. Buxton, FC United of Manchester, Ossett Albion and Marine also made the Cup's final qualifying stage.

In the goal-scoring charts, Kristian Dennis took the season's overall Golden Boot with his 40 league goals for Curzon Ashton. Ryan Kendall was the Premier Division's top scorer after his 36 strikes helped fire the Villagers to the title. Halesowen Town's Ben Haseley equalled his tally in First Division South. Kendall also won the Non-League Paper's Steps 3-4 Player of the Year Award with Romaine Graham collecting the Goal of the Season gong.

2012-13 also saw fresh national acclaim for the league's teams and individuals. At the FA Cup Final the NPL and Nantwich Town completed a Football Association Respect double by winning the Steps 1-4 league and club awards, the feat being achieved for the third time in four years since the launch of the Respect and Fair Play Awards. Internally, the Evo-Stik NPL's own fair play awards were sponsored by Jungledrum for the first time. In the Premier Division, FC United of Manchester took the plaudits as the best behaved side. Sutton Coldfield Town won the accolade in First Division South while First Division North winners Harrogate Railway Athletic were also the league's overall fair play champions.

Away from the fields of play, the season was marked by numerous clubs announcing or opening new academic partnerships with local colleges and school and continuing to forge new community links. For the second year running the league's star players were also celebrated at the Evo-Stik NPL Players of the Year Awards in Barnsley when Doncaster Rovers manager Brian Flynn handed out the accolades.

The league's partnership with footballing charity Kit Aid also grew with collections of unwanted kit at more than twenty clubs helping thousands of less fortunate young footballers around the world. More than half the Evo-Stik NPL's clubs also took advantage of the FA's new partnership with the British Heart Foundation to purchase subsidised defibrillators following the anniversary of Patrick Muamba's collapse and recovery.

Flynn Guest of Honour

Doncaster Rover boss Brian Flynn turned out to be one of the stars of the 2013 Evo-Stik Northern Premier League's Players of the Year Awards.

The diminutive former Wales, Wrexham and Swansea manager, pictured, showed just why he's one of football's most popular personalities, happily joking about his stature throughout last Sunday night's celebrations to nearly three hundred guests assembled in Barnsley to honour the league's biggest entertainers.

The 57-year-old title-chasing League One manager kicked off the event at the four star Brooklands Holiday Inn by comparing himself to Barcelona's Lionel Messi, telling the audience: "He might have been a better player than me and you might have preferred him here tonight but I'm still bigger than Messi, by half an inch!"

The brainchild of former Manchester City keeper and Evo-Stik NPL stalwart Alan Ogle, the NPL's second annual awards were unique in the top levels of Non-Football with the focus on recognising the league's star players and the winners chosen by managers and coaches.

North Ferriby United's striker Ryan Kendall is sure to lead the coverage after taking home what was arguably the most coveted accolade from Sunday's event, the NPL Facebook Group Fans Player of the Year Award. Kendall was just one of nearly forty players honoured on the night as guests enjoyed a three course dinner and entertainment from one of the North's top comedians, Lea Roberts, the former Rugby League professional.

After the stars named in the Teams of the Year covering the NPL's three divisions were honoured on stage by Flynn and NPL Chairman Mark Harris who jointly hosted the event, some of the loudest cheers of the evening went to the six players named as Player of the Year and Young Player of the Year in their respective divisions.

Kidsgrove Athletic's Jack Sherratt, fresh from winning Samsung's 'Win a Pro Contract' competition last weekend, was named as the First Division South Young Player of the Year while the First Division North award went to Skelmersdale United's Gary Burnett. AFC's Fylde's Sean Cooke took the Premier Division's accolade.

Hednesford's Elliott Durrell was honoured as the Premier Division Player of the Year while Curzon Ashton's Kristian Dennis and Halesowen's Ben Haseley took home the First Division North and South accolades respectively.

Matlock Town's Chief Executive Keith Brown also took home an award on Sunday after he was honoured with the NPL's Merit Award for his long service to the league.
